Overview

Elisabeth Hudson specialises in all aspects of family law. She carries out both private and publicly funded work. Elisabeth has particular experience in Children Act work, both public and private, and in Financial Remedy cases.

She is qualified to accept client instructions under the Public Access Scheme, and has been carrying out such work since 2013.

Elisabeth says : "I understand that family matters can be highly charged and emotional, and I work hard on your behalf to ensure your voice is heard. I am friendly, and approachable, with your best interests at heart."

"If a sensible out of Court settlement can be reached on your behalf, I will help you negotiate to achieve this goal. If this is not possible I will do my utmost to ensure a case is well prepared for Court, in order to obtain the best outcome possible."

Elisabeth is based in the Hampshire/Oxfordshire/Berkshire areas, with offices in London, Bournemouth, Winchester, Oxford, Bristol and Birmingham. An initial consultation can be arranged at any of these centres. She is available to give informal updating lectures to solicitors by arrangement through her clerks.

Outside of work, Elisabeth is a keen horse rider competing under BS rules. Since 2006, her horses have competed at the Horse of the Year Show, Royal Windsor Horse Show, Hickstead, Olympia, and in Europe. Elisabeth enjoys playing the piano and breeds and shows a wide variety of livestock.
